BACKGROUND

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, PAIA gives effect to section 32 of the Constitution, which provides that everyone has the right to access information held by the State, as well as information held by another person (or private body) when such privately held information is required to exercise a right or to protect a right.

PAIA provides that a person requesting information must be given access to any record of a private body, if that record is required for the exercise or the protection of a right. However, such request must comply with the procedural requirements laid down by the Act.

4. PURPOSE OF THIS MANUAL

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to-

1. Check the categories of records held by a body which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
2. Have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the body, by providing a description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
3. Know the description of the records of the body which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
4. Access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
5. Know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
6. Know if the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
7. Know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
8. Know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
9. Know if the body has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
10. Know whether the body has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

General description of Information Security Measures to be implemented by the responsible party to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the information

The Company has provided for the following security measures:

- Cyber security systems and measures including data encryption, anti-virus and anti-malware solutions;
- Information security policies;
- Data privacy policies;
- Training in information security.

12. PROCESS TO REQUEST INFORMATION

The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained herein relating to the request for access to information.

The requester must complete the prescribed form, FORM 2 (ANNEXURE C) hereto attached, also available on the Information Regulator website at <https://inforegulator.org.za/paia-forms>, copies of which also forms annexures to this manual.

Submit completed form, with proof of payment of the requested fee and/or a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer.

The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:

- the information or records requested;
- the identity of the requester;
- the form of access required;
- the email address, postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic; or
- if the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in a different manner (in addition to written), the manner and particulars thereof; and
- the right which the requester is seeking to exercise or protect with an explanation of the reason the record is required.

The request will be processed within 30 (thirty) days of receipt, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, that circumstances dictate urgency.

The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. In addition, the Information Officer will include the reason for the decision by completing FORM 3 (ANNEXURE D) (hereto attached for reference).

Should a request be made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in they are acting to the satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)).

Should an individual be unable to complete the prescribed form, owing to illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally and be assisted by the Company, where possible, to complete the required form. The requester must still pay the prescribed fee before the request can be processed and the prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the required information and paid the prescribed fee.

The Information Officer shall partition information, if possible, and only grant the requester, access to the requested portion.

13. PRESCRIBED FEES

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

1. A request fee, which is a form of an administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
2. An access fee, which is paid by all requesters if a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs incurred by the Company in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

All clients of the Company are allowed to access their own information without having to go through this formal information request process or pay a request fee. All clients should contact their adviser to access their information.

If the search for the information has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including an arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted. If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed 6 (six) hours, a deposit of a third of the payable access fee shall be paid.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the requested fees.

A requester whose request for access to information has been granted must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, processing fee for reproduction, search, and preparation, and for any time reasonably required over the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer will repay the deposit to the requester.

Where the Company has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for the reproduction of the record in question. No notice has been submitted by the Company to the Minister of Justice and Constitutional development regarding the categories of records, which are available without a person having to request access in terms of section 52(2) of PAIA.

An access fee is payable where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act or exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8). A requester may query the payment of the requested fee and/or deposit with the Information Officer. Should the requester find the decision unsatisfactory, he/she may lodge an application with a court.

The Fee Schedule is hereto attached as ANNEXURE B.

14. REMEDIES FOR WHEN A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION IS REFUSED

The decision of the Information Officer is final and binding. The Company does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision made by the Information Officer is final.

Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Information Officer may exercise external remedies at their disposal. All complaints by a requester or a third party can be made to the Information Regulator or a court, in the manner prescribed below.

COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION REGULATOR

The requester or third party may submit a complaint in writing to the Information Regulator, within six months of the decision, alleging that the decision was not compliance with the provisions of the legislation. The Information Regulator will investigate the complaint and reach a decision, which may include a decision to investigate, to take no further action, to conciliate the matter or to refer the complaint to the Enforcement Committee. The Information Regulator may serve an enforcement notice confirming, amending, or setting aside the impugned decision, which must be accompanied by reasons.

APPLICATION TO COURT

An application to court maybe brought in the ordinary course. For this purpose, any reference to an application to court includes an application to a relevant Magistrate's Court.

15. IN SUMMARY

1. This process may not be used to obtain information for the use in any legal action. Records for legal action should be obtained using the rules and procedures for discovery of information that are defined for legal proceedings. The Company has the right to claim all expenses and other damages that result from a request that breaks the abovementioned law.
2. The process only applies to records that exist at the time of the request for information. It does not require the Company to create a record which does not exist at the time the request is made.
3. Provided that none of the restrictions mentioned above apply, any person wishing to access a record, in terms of the Act, that is not freely available, are required to file a request using the prescribed form (as annexed). The form may be obtained from the Information Officer as per the details contained within this document. The completed form is to be submitted to the Information Officer, together with the details of the authority to request the information and payment of any applicable request fees or deposits as defined by the Act and Notice R187. The fee structure can be seen in ANNEXURE B.
4. A request made on behalf of another person should be accompanied by proof of the capacity or authority to request the information.

16. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

A copy of this Manual is available-

1. At the head office of the Company for public inspection during normal business hours;
2. To any person upon request and upon the payment of a reasonable prescribed fee; and
3. To the Information Regulator upon request.

A fee for a printed copy of the Manual, as contemplated in annexure B of the Regulations, shall be payable per each A4-size photocopy made.

4. UPDATING OF THE MANUAL

The Key Individual / Chief Executive Officer and Information Officer of the Company will on a regular basis update this manual.
